

HAUGHTON WINS PROVINCIALS!

Joey De Los Reyes (coach from Kombat Arts), winner Jermaine Haughton with his opponent Paulo Dultra, and Paul Oddi the owner of Point Blank

Congratulations to Jermaine Haughton on his victory at the Provincial Championships, bringing home the provincial Thai Boxing championship title in the under 64kg division. The finals had Jermaine squaring off against Paulo Dultra of Kombat Arts, in Mississauga. It was a fantastic match; with each athlete giving it their all, and ending with a hard fought split decision victory for Jermaine bringing him the championship title. Fellow Teammate Saman 'Ego Boy' Mohammadzadeh moved to the finals to face off against Matt Embree of Siam No. 1, in Toronto, in the under 60kg division finals. Unfortunately, his opponent's consistent performance throughout the match brought him the victory and the provincial title, but won Saman a silver medal. Both athletes will be competing in this month's 'Season's Beatings' Thai Boxing event on Saturday November 24th at Point Blank Martial Arts, in Aurora. Tickets are now available at the front desk on at www.pointblank.ca/tickets.php.
