

Top-rated Newmarket southpaw gets Classic prospects test

Lefthanded pitcher Jake Eliopoulos of Newmarket is the lone Canadian scheduled to participate in the Under-Armour All-America Classic for 2009 draft eligible prospects today at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

The six-foot, three-inch Eliopoulos, who plays with the Brantford Red Sox of the Intercounty Baseball League, is projected as the top Canadian in next year's Major League Baseball draft. He is a student at Sacred Heart Catholic High School in Newmarket.

Tennis juniors serve it up for Newmarket Open

Four titles are up for grabs when the Newmarket Open junior tennis tournament resumes today at the Keith David Tennis Centre in Newmarket.

The three-day Ontario Tennis Association event for under-14 and under-18 players is scheduled to hold semifinal matches at 10 a.m. with championship matches at 1 p.m.

Denison Huskies' Pangos MVP in Ontario hoops title drive

Kevin Pangos scored a game-high 21 points and was named most valuable player of the tournament as Ontario defeated host British Columbia 102-48 last Sunday in the national midget basketball championships in Kamloops.

Pangos, who had 22 points in a 97-69 semifinal win over Quebec in the semifinals, was named MVP for the unbeaten (6-0) Ontario squad in three games.

The Holland Landing resident is a Grade 11 student at Dr. Denison Secondary School in Newmarket.

Spatafora claims Thai title with unanimous decision

Thai boxer Andrew Spatafora of Point Blank Martial Arts in Aurora won a unanimous three-round decision over Mike Stone of Newfoundland Saturday to capture the 130-pound class at the 2008 Nak Muay Series in Mississauga.

The 18-year-old Richmond Hill resident, now 3-1, advanced to the title fight after wining a series of qualifying bouts.

—John Cudmore